Income, Care and Family Protection are optional riders and must be elected at contract issue, subject to state availability. They involve an additional fee that is based on a percentage of the Benefit Base and is deducted annually from the contract accumulation value. The fee for Income, Care and Family Protection is 1.15%, Income and Care Protection fee is 0.95% and Income and Family Protection fee is 1.15%. Rider fee is subject to change and will increase as Benefit Base grows. The Benefit Base is a calculated value used only to determine benefits and fees. It does not guarantee contract value and is not available for withdrawal.

1. The Income Benefit Base bonus varies during years 1-3 depending on the year in which income withdrawals begin.

2. Roll-ups on income benefit base and death benefit base stop at rider exercise.

3. Certain criteria must be met and proof of qualification must be submitted each year to receive enhanced income benefits under the Care Protection benefit rider. Benefit varies based on the age of the oldest living covered person at time of contract issue. Available after second contract anniversary. Care Protection benefit is not available in California. The Care Protection Benefit Rider is NOT a qualified Long Term Care benefit under the Internal Revenue Code. It does NOT qualify for preferential tax treatment and does NOT provide health insurance, Long Term Care insurance or Medicaid benefits.

4. Death benefit base is reduced by withdrawals and rolls-up annually until the Income or Care Protection riders are exercised. Roll-up varies based on attained age of the oldest living covered person. The death benefit is not life insurance and is taxable to beneficiaries.
